I have read the STLWS Exhibition Requirement and comply with them. I hereby give my permission to the STLWS to hang my artwork at CJ Muggs for the period stated above. I agree to leave all artwork for this exhibit until the close of the exhibit, unless an offer to purchase the artwork is received. I will then replace the artwork with another piece, if possible, and print my own title card for the replacement artwork (link found under the Exhibit tab on the stlws.org website in the CJ Muggs paragraph) until the exhibit closes. I am responsible for removing my own art work from this exhibit. I understand that every precaution will be taken to safeguard all work from loss or damage, but neither the Saint Louis Watercolor Society nor anyone connected with this exhibition will be responsible for loss or damage from any cause.

I understand that I must be a member of the STLWS at the time of entry for the painting to be eligible to be displayed.
