Keiko Tanabe Workshop

Monday, October 5th - Thursday, October 8th, 2020 Cost: $385 Members and $435 Non-Members

This will be a four day workshop for all skill levels. Keiko Tanabe loved art as a child, but with her degree in intercultural communication she worked in international relations positions in Japanese trade organizations. Once in San Diego, California, her growing desire to become an artist emerged, and shortly thereafter, by 2005, she was a successful professional artist. Since then her paintings have been juried into many exhibitions across the Americas and in Asia and Europe. Additionally, she self-publishes her art books, having completed nine books by 2019. Keiko's expertise is capturing light and atmosphere in watercolor, and a preview of her website, ktanabefineart.com, will show her skill at capturing perfectly the ambiance in every setting she paints, transporting the viewer instantly into that scene. In this workshop you will learn to simplify a painting, fuel your creativity, tell your story on paper—don't leave important words unsaid.
